

2022 Art in the Park Vendor Information

Saturday, September 24, 10 am – 4 pm, J. Travis Price Park, Springfield, TN

We're happy that you're applying to be part of our 12th Annual Art in the Park!

Art in the Park is a fine art and folk arts festival presented by Willow Oak Center for Arts & Learning each year FREE to the public. The event attracts 3,500-4,500 people from Middle Tennessee and beyond. Once again, we are applying for a tourism grant from the Robertson County Economic Development Board that will fund our marketing outside of Robertson County, expanding the promotion we do inside our county.

We would appreciate your "sharing" our Art in the Park posts on Facebook and Instagram to your personal pages. That would help us reach an even greater audience.

STANDARDS

1. The artist or craftsperson that designed the work must personally attend their booth during show hours. If the work is signed or the artist's name appears on a hangtag, that individual is required to be at the show. Any person or persons working in the booth must be neat in appearance and clothing must adhere to the provisions in line 5 below. You are required to bring any materials needed for your booth, such as chairs, tables, and displays.
2. A 10' x 10' "instant up" style canopy is required for each 10' wide section of space. Exhibitors are required to be prepared for inclement weather by securing their canopy to the ground with stakes through the feet of the canopy or weighted to eliminate the possibility of the canopy toppling in moderate to heavy wind. All vendor booths should be attractive from all sides and not distract from neighboring booths.
3. Booths are required to be in place until 4:01 pm the day of the show. Any exhibitor tearing down early will not be allowed to participate in any future Art in the Park events. Art in the Park is rain or shine. In the case of an emergency or hazardous weather conditions, the Art in the Park organizers will make a determination on tear down requirements at that time.
4. Booths, the area behind and around them, are to remain clean and free of garbage.
5. Art in the Park is a family event. All articles of clothing must be in good taste with no reference to race, ethnicity, gender, or religious prejudice. No items considered obscene will be allowed. Art in the Park organizers will make the final judgements.
6. Alcoholic beverages and illegal drugs are prohibited.
7. Vendors must park in areas designated by Art in the Park organizers. Unloading and loading will be allowed near your booth during set-up and tear down hours ONLY (weather permitting). Handicap Parking will be made available to exhibitors with the handicap tag.
8. Exhibitors are responsible for collecting and reporting their own sales tax.
9. Any exhibitor that does not meet these requirements at set-up will be asked to leave.

FOOD VENDORS

- 1) Only professional food vendors will be approved for the "food court" area of Art in the Park.
- 2) A maximum of 3 food trucks are allowed at Art in the Park. In order not to compete, food vendors will offer a variety of foods. (For example, only one food truck will sell barbeque.)
